Rev. Dr. Errol Elton Joseph

Rev. Dr. Errol Elton Joseph is a pastor and educator who came to Christ as a teenager over thirty-four years ago. He has been married to Jamaican-born wife Lorrien for more than twenty-one years. They have one son, Lorrence Elton Angelo.

Dr. Joseph holds the Bachelor of Theology (Hons.) from the Jamaica Theological Seminary; The Master of Arts in Christian Education (Hons.) from the Caribbean Graduate School of Theology and the Doctor of Philosophy in Organizational Leadership from Regent University, Virginia Beach, Virginia, USA. He pursued research in the field of Servant Leadership and Negotiation Strategy. Rev. Joseph has served in several organizational positions within the Open Bible Standard Churches including, District & Regional superintendent, member of the National Board of Directors and other organizational boards and committees. He was Principal of the Open Bible High School from July 1991 to August 2008. He currently lectures in Spiritual Formation, Leadership and Conflict Management and regularly conducts seminars and workshops in the areas of leadership development and conflict management.

Dr. Joseph was appointed Senior Pastor of the Claxton Bay Open Bible Church in February 2000, after six and a half years as pastor of the Indian Trail Open Bible church. In September, 2008, he assumed the position of Director of Education (now Vice-President for Academic Affairs) at the West Indies School of Theology, Maracas, St. Joseph.
